Making Officials Responsible

There is a stirring among the people to make appointed officials and their subordinates more responsible. It's about time.

Too often citizens have been called to a hearing without sufficient evidence to justify the trouble and expense they are caused to bear.

Even after dismissal, there isn't even a "so sorry" nod, much less reimbursement for the expense the foolishness put to them.

There is a move under way now by which the government entity must pay for their mischief and bad judgment in hauling innocent taxpayers through the grist mill.

That is as it should be but the agency (the taxpayer) gets the bill ultimately. The charge ought to be against the individual who instigated the wrongful action.

So much for your friendly government who starts the action by which you are hauled into a hearing.

Now for my idea!

Frequently residents all over the U.S. get letters from elected officials. They come from the lowly local dog catcher right on up to the President. These letters, usually listed as "report to the people" are printed, folded, put into envelopes, addressed and sealed at taxpayers' expense.

This idea would require the official who mails the letter to enclose a 13-cent stamp so that the constituent can respond. This postage would come out of the official's personal income. That would end one-way communication. Each recipient could strike back with his opinions of the official's claims that are often self-complimentary. Requiring the lawmaker to pay for "equal time" is in line with what they are requiring radio and teevee stations to do.

U.S. Senator Alan Cranston shows his awareness of the bum deal Americans are getting from their elected officials in his current newsletter.

He warns that 58 per cent of the respondents interviewed in a recent Harris poll believe that their leaders are out to take advantage of them.

Half of the total feel that many of those in power are a little crooked.

Polls show a growing belief that the political process is so unresponsive and dishonest that it cannot be used by voters for their purposes.

"There is anger among the people who feel a loss of control over their own lives—who feel resentment at being manipulated by an insensitive, faraway bureaucracy," he warned.

But letter writing, in spite of its growing cost, is still a good way to reach the viscera of politicians, and through them, the bureaucrats. Pour out your thoughts on paper.

Here are some suggestions for making your letter-writing easier:

1. Be timely. React at once, hot on the heels of your disenchantment. You might wait a day before mailing so that you can add some second thoughts to your original statements.

2. Be brief. Limit your letter to three or four paragraphs. You can't change anything in 20 paragraphs that you can't in 4.

3. One subject. The recipient has a lot of worries. Stick to one subject each time you write.

4. Organize your material in logical sequence.

5. Be factual. Avoid vague generalities and label-hanging.

6. Be simple. Follow newspaper style. Say it shorter, say it better!

7. Be constructive: When you condemn, offer a suggested way of improvement.

8. Style. Double-space the letter. One side of the paper leaving wide margins.

9. Sign your name and address. An anonymous letter is non-effective.

Send a similar letter to your newspaper or to a magazine and indicate at the bottom where a similar copy was sent.

Personal letters are far more effective than form letters—letters usually stimulated by a third party.

When it is indicated that a similar letter is being sent to a publication, the response from the government official is usually a little quicker.

Try it!

But don't wait for your lawmaker to send you postage. He isn't likely to vote an expense on himself that is as costly as his expense on you!

Ronald Reagan Says:

There is a lesson in the Vietnam war for all of us. If military power must be exerted to serve our freedom or that of our allies, the purpose must be clearly spelled out for the people . . . before the first troops go ashore.

Stolen Bike Triggers Drug Charge

A thoughtful neighbor noted a black juvenile ringing door bells in the 1600 block of San Altos st. in Lemon Grove about 9 a.m. on April 1.

She noted that the youth tried each door after waiting long enough for even a slow resident to answer the bell.

She also noted that the suspect was riding a bike of a certain size and color and wearing a red and white wool cap.

All of this she reported to the Lemon Grove office of the Sheriff's Department.

Two detectives were dispatched to the area. The officers saw a juvenile riding a bike hurriedly south on San Altos. He fit the description. They ordered him to stop.

Instead, he jumped from the bike, fled over the hilly terrain, dropping a brown paper bag in the process.

The youth scaled a 7-foot fence and was out of sight by the time the officer had stopped his car to give chase.

Later, joined by other officers in the search, they cornered the boy in a culvert.

Brown Bag

Meanwhile, the brown bag was reported to have contained a cache of jewelry, a container of marijuana seed and a clear plastic bag of cocaine powder.

The youth, 17, admitted the bike was not his. During the interrogation, a pedestrian identified himself as Gregory Fenwick, of 1681 San Altos pl., claimed the bike had been stolen from his nephew who lives at 1675 San Altos pl. Officers took his name and address and released the bike to him.

The 17-year old suspect then offered to identify the house he admitted burglarizing. It was at 1675 San Altos pl.—the same address from which the missing bike had come. It was the residence of Buddy Carl Edwards, a postal employee.

The detectives went to the address, entering the premises through the garage and knocked on the open kitchen door.

The man who had claimed his nephew's bike was standing in the kitchen talking on the phone. The officers walked through the kitchen, into the living room. The room appeared to have undergone a thorough ransacking.

Spread about on two sofas was a "large amount of narcotics paraphernalia", they reported. In an open cookie jar was 578 grams of marijuana seed. In a baby's bottle was 4 3/4 fluid ounces of hashish oil. In another container was 291 grams of powdered cocaine, plus a baggie of cocaine similar to that officers found in the brown bag. Roaches, papers and pipes were also reportedly spread about.

New Arrival

While officers were listing the contraband, Buddy Carl Edwards, 28, the postal employee, arrived home in his van. The jewelry items in the brown bag had been taken from his home, he said. The paraphernalia left lying about was his, the officers charged, and arrested him for possession of marijuana for sale and possession of cocaine for sale.

The date of his trial has not been ascertained.

Ironically, it was Edwards' son's stolen bike that started the series of events leading to the two charges.

Hearing Next Week

County Offers All VLM As Boundary Solution

SAN DIEGO (NEWSWEST) —Boundary recommendations from county staff on the Lemon Grove incorporation measure place all of Vista La Mesa within the proposed new city, according to Charlotte Langley, who prepared the report.

"There are four options in drawing the lines, but only one good one," she said. A Board of Supervisors hearing on the matter is scheduled April 21.

La Mesa ruined a June vote on Lemon Grove cityhood March 10 by filing an eleventh hour protest with the board. The incorporation then hinged on La Mesa's cooperation because the majority of Vista La Mesa was proposed for annexation to that city and state law prohibits left-over unincorporated "islands" less than one square mile while new cities are formed.

Langley said placing the Lemon Grove city north boundary at either Freeway 94 or at a more northerly compromise line drawn by the Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO) jeopardized the Lemon Grove vote because of the state law regarding "islands."

Originally, concurrent staff proposals for the Lemon Grove incorporation and La

Mesa annexations placed the boundary at Highway 94, but LAFCO shifted the line northward to include about 300 acres within the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District.

Before La Mesa's objections, LAFCO figured the remaining portion of Vista La Mesa would agree to join La Mesa and the possibility of invalidating the Lemon Grove election outcome would not arise.

La Mesa officials have insisted that the freeway is the logical southern boundary for the city.

To increase Vista La Mesa to a size exempting it from the "island" restriction would mean placing the boundary south of Highway 94, Langley said. That option would be totally unacceptable to Lemon Grove cityhood proponents and doom the incorporation to failure.

The only plan which avoids state law limitations and removes La Mesa's power to stop proceedings is moving the Lemon Grove boundaries north to University ave., La Mesa's city line. Langley said that builds a lot of pro-La Mesa support into the Lemon Grove proposal but seems to be the best alternative.

The Lemon Grove proposal before the board in March amounted to about four square miles with a population of around 18,500 and a property tax rate of $.75 per $100 assessed valuation. Langley said the addition of the Vista La Mesa area would improve the tax rate situation, already one of the most promising incorporation packages headed for a vote in recent years.

Tools and Box Taken

Tools and a tool box worth $175 were taken from the unattached garage at the home of William M. Clark of 7007 Conception st., Spring Valley, he told sheriff's deputies on March 30.

He said he was sleeping at the time of the burglary.

Nearly an Inch Is Storm's Total

The early-in-the-week storm provided .96 of an inch of rain in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, according to Jim Nicodemus, meteorologist at the local fire station.

The season's rainfall total stands at 9.57 which would have been more than the total for the same period last year, except a heavy storm was being experienced at that time.

After the storm last year the season's total was 13.80 inches.

Rainfall seasons are from July 1 each year.

Busy School Board Elects Officers, Okays Employee Reps, Aphasic Class

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees elected officers for the 1976-77 school year at its annual organization meeting held last week at the District Administration building.

Senior member H. Warren Buckner was elected board president, replacing Leonard Klee. Jim Dorman became vice president and Henry Reinecke clerk.

Bargaining Agents

At the regular meeting following, trustees agreed to accept the Lemon Grove Teachers Assn. (LGTA) and local Chapter 280 of the California School Employees Assn. (CSEA) as the exclusive bargaining representatives of the certified and classified employees respectively.

The Rodda Bill (SB 160) mandates a collective bargaining process in wage and benefit negotiations with local school districts.

The bill became effective January 1 and the collective bargaining process will begin after July 1.

Under terms of new state legislation, school employees must elect an exclusive representative.

The board acknowledged LGTA and CSEA after citing that 88% and 94% of the respective groups agreed with the selection. A challenge would require 30% of either staff. A small number of certified employees are represented by the American Federation of Teachers in the Lemon Grove District, Sutton said. No group other than CSEA represents classified staff, he said.

In other board action, trustees agreed to file an application for an Aphasic class to serve children in the district with severe oral handicaps. The class, to be located at Mt. Vernon School, was authorized when it was learned that there were six children in the district's learning disabilities class who would benefit. Government funding pays all costs of such a class.

Trustees Pick Palm Jr. High New Principal

Lemon Grove School District trustees met in executive session last week to select the replacement for retiring Palm Jr. High principal Hal Brogan. The board decided on Stewart Fisher, 34, principal at a junior high in the Kings Canyon Unified School District, located south of Fresno.

In addition to three years with King's Canyon, Fisher was a social studies and physical education teacher and an assistant principal at Newport Mesa Unified School District. He holds a BA and MA from Whittier college.

Fisher assumes duties in Lemon Grove August 30. Brogan will retire after the current school year.

2-Year Old Dies In Swing Mishap

A backyard swing on which 2-year old Lisa Christensen was playing, toppled on her Saturday, killing her, according to the coroner's office.

Lisa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen, of 753 Paraiso ave., Spring Valley, was pronounced dead at Grossmont Hospital soon after 4:30 p.m.

Lisa's mother had checked on her about that time and found the child lying under the swing.

The coroner reported that the girl died of asphyxiation after the structure collapsed and fell across her chest and neck.

Liquor and Jewelry Makes Hefty Loot

A thief slipped the lock on the door of the home of Brenda Josephine Hays of 563 Osage st., Spring Valley, on April 2 while she was away.

The intruder did no ransacking but went directly for the items he sought — namely liquor, jewelry, coins, currency and silver bars.

The burglar took time out to eat several donuts before carrying away his loot.

Loss was estimated to be $1,131.99, not including the donuts.

Sheriff's deputies reported the thief entered through a rear garage door.

Safety Locks No Help

John Mumaw, of 2355 Washington st., Lemon Grove, felt a degree of safety with his Garrard lock bolts on his wheels.

But on the morning of April 2 at 7:45 when he was set to drive away from his home, one wheel was missing complete with tire and rim.

The jack used to raise the vehicle was still in place. His loss, he said, was $150.

TRIES AGAIN — Toni Pearce, a senior at Mt. Miguel High, has entered the 1976-77 Miss Lemon Grove contest. The 5' 3 1/2" brunette is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pearce of 1756 Dayton dr., Lemon Grove. Miss Pearce entered the contest last year and was judged first runner-up to Kathy Simmons.

Another entry, bringing the number of candidates to four, is Judy Joanne Koenig of 2127 Berry st. Deadline for entering the April 24 pageant is next Thursday. Entry forms are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, 3415 Imperial ave., 7917 or 7929 Broadway.

SV Senior Joe Davis Wins Merit Scholarship

A Spring Valley high school senior is one of 1,300 students recently named a recipient of a corporate-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarship.

Joseph P. Davis, of 2013 Terrakappa ave., Spring Valley, won a Montgomery Ward Merit Scholarship, the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) announced this week.

Davis is a prospective student of oceanography who attends Mt. Miguel High. He is in the top ten in his senior class. He was also named recently as a finalist in the Bank of America scholarship program.

Likes Water

In addition to his academic accomplishments, Davis is a water polo team co-captain, a member of the school's swim team and the Junior Honor Aisle.

The Montgomery Ward Foundation awards scholarships to children of employees of Montgomery Ward and its subsidiary companies who qualify as finalists.

Established in October 1968, the Foundation also contributes additional financial aid to higher education through a matching gifts program for employee support of colleges and universities and through a program of unrestricted grants to selected private and independent colleges.

$1,000 to $6,000

Each corporate-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarship is worth between $1,000 and $6,000 over the undergraduate years of college. These awards are specified for Merit Program Finalists who meet preferential criteria established by the sponsors. The largest number of scholarships are designated for finalists who are children of company employees, or residents of areas or communities where the organization providing support has plants or operations; a few are specified for finalists planning to pursue careers the sponsor wishes to encourage.

The annual stipend is determined on an individual basis, generally within the range of $250 to $1,500 per year for four years. The individual stipends are not made public since they are derived in part, from confidential financial information.

One in a Million

Davis was one of more than a million high school juniors who entered the 1976 competition by taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test in October 1974. In the fall of 1975, some 15,000 were named semi-finalists.

About 14,000 semi-finalists advanced to finalist level in the competition by meeting further requirements including being endorsed and recommended by their high school officials, a second examination and submitting records to support high academic standing. Merit Scholarship winners are chosen from the group of highly able finalists.

In addition to the corporate-sponsored winners, two other major announcements of Merit Scholars will be made this month. On April 22, 1,000 winners of National Merit $1000 Scholarships will be announced nationwide. On April 29, NMSC will release the names of about 1,500 students being offered college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships.

Organ Class Starts

Southland Music Center, 3459 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, is beginning a new organ class. The class will meet each Tuesday night at 7:30.

Instructor for the Class is Tommy Stark, a well-known local entertainer and organist. Stark uses the Revolutionary Evelyn Terrell Organ Class Method. Music for a particular class, which runs a little over an hour, is handed out at each class meeting free of charge.

The concept of the class is to teach people how to play the organ legitimately while having a good time doing it. The combination of these elements encourages rapid progress with the class which acts as an incentive to graduate to higher levels of achievement.

The classes are open to anyone interested in playing the organ; it is not necessary to own an organ or to be able to read music — only the desire to play the organ.

Students Relive History At LG's San Altos School

By Toni Espland

If other bi-centennial programs, produced this year, can match the hard work, inventiveness, and spirit of the one put on by Mrs. Palermos' sixth graders, at San Altos Elementary school, we may see a stir of patriotism replacing sometimes bored attitudes.

The turnout for last week's open house and ice cream social packed the hall for the production.

took their audience through two hundred years of history with clear and concise readings. It was a true pleasure to hear and understand the entire program.

Period costumes and props by James Rogers and Diane Budzynski added authenticity to the scenes depicting progress of the past 200 years. Many traditional songs were sung by the chorus.

The program was lively, well-rehearsed and informative.

Fortunately, it will be presented again at Monterey Heights Elementary school shortly after Easter vacation. Many of the children played several roles. The list of players is: Martin Boltz, Gregory Budzynski, Catalina Huidor, Marlon Louis, Sheila Orman, Paul Edwards, Gregory Richards, Robert Manteufel, John Haddock, Maria Fletcher, Matthew Lyons, Christian Smith, Jimmy Boone, Tina Duran, Dawn Brown, Stacy Haines, Harry Waller, Denise Rogers, Debbie Vashaw, Sandra Mebane, Glenna Pritchett, Eunice Gamboa, Gloria Robinson, Eva Orozco, Luana Cano, Jackie Nelson and Kathy Bowers.

This Week's RECIPE

Chicken Dish — For Yogurt Lovers Only

Yogurt is an absolute food. You either absolutely love it or absolutely hate it. If you're in the latter group, kindly disregard this week's recipe. But if you're one of a growing number of eaters who recognize the nutritious nature of this milk derivative, read on.

Versatile yogurt has become a major dairy product both for eating and cooking. Spice it with soy sauce, coriander and curry and use as a marinade and basting sauce for chicken breasts. You'll be delighted with the glazed and golden baked chicken. Yogurt is a cultured food made from whole milk, lowfat milk or nonfat milk. Its outstanding nutritive values are the same as the milk from which it was made.

BAKED YOGURT CHICKEN
1 (8 oz.) carton plain yogurt
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. soy sauce
3/4 tsp. ground coriander
1/8 tsp. curry powder
1/8 tsp. pepper
4 chicken breast halves

Mix yogurt, lemon juice, soy sauce, coriander, curry powder and pepper in 10 x 6-inch shallow baking dish. Turn chicken in sauce to coat. Cover and marinate several hours or overnight in refrigerator. Bake uncovered in 375° oven 55 minutes or until tender, basting often with pan juices during last half hour. If desired, double the yogurt mixture and use half as chilled sauce to pass with hot chicken. Makes 4 servings.

Messersmith Story—Lemon Grove Chapter

The sun was shining brightly Saturday. It was a great day for baseball — even though Andy Messersmith was to sign with the Atlanta Braves instead of the Padres.

The phone rang early. It was Ray Kotnik, one of our readers, who lives at 8055 Canton dr. in Lemon Grove.

"I had breakfast with Ray Kroc (owner of the S.D. Padres) a few minutes ago at the Lemon Grove McDonald's restaurant," he announced. Kroc is founder of McDonald's.

"Did you talk with him? What did you talk about?" "I thanked him for keeping baseball in San Diego and I told him how people admired the Bavasis (who operate the Padres)," Kotnik said.

Kotnik has been an usher at the Stadium since it was built.

A little later we visited Don Kelly, manager of McDonald's at 7164 Broadway. Kelly confirmed that Kroc and his staff had indeed had breakfast there about an hour before. He didn't have a chance to visit with Kroc because the store was too busy. "But he'll be back," Kelly said.

How did he know?

"He left one of his cars here," he said — reminiscent of Howard Hughes who, years ago so the story goes, was requested by phone to move his personal plane from a restricted area of an airport. "I wondered where I left it," Hughes is said to have told the airport official.

Hoping for a story of a little greater magnitude, we asked Kelly, who has been the top boss of the store since it was built last year, "is there anything he could tell us, on or off the record?"

"Yes," he said leaning across the counter confidentially. "I learned the Padres will sign Messersmith before the game tonight (Saturday)."

Messersmith signed that night — with the Braves.

TOURNEY COFAVORITE — Former U.S. Open champion Hale Irwin is rated 5-to-1 cofavorite with Hubert Green to win the $225,000 MONY Tournament of Champions, today through Sunday at La Costa Country Club. Irwin has won two tournaments this year and $125,007, second on the money list.

$225,000 MONY Tourney Opens Today at La Costa

LA COSTA — MONY (pronounced money, like $225,000) is an appropriate name for the sponsor of the Tournament of Champions.

It's the richest per capita tournament in the country — nearly $10,000 per player ($9,782.60).

Further, it rewards handsomely even those who aren't winners. For example, the player who finished dead last will receive about $4,000.

That's $1,200 more than Arnold Palmer received when he won the 1961 Baton Rouge Open.

First prize in the MONY Tournament of Champions is $45,000.

The 24th annual elite event will be contested today through Sunday at La Costa Resort Hotel, Spa and Country Club.

22 players have qualified for this prestigious tournament, which is open only to winners of major events since the last MONY T of C.

That's the huge obstacle — winning a tournament. For nine qualifiers, defending champion Al Geiberger, Jack Nicklaus, Johnny Miller, Hale Irwin, Hubert Green, Tom Watson, Gene Littler, Ben Crenshaw and Roger Maltbie, it was easy. They have won two or more tournaments. But for others, there's an awesome mortality rate among year-to-year qualifiers.

Nicklaus passed the deadline earlier this week and is not scheduled at the La Costa event.

Of the 30 players in last year's MONY T of C, only 10 will be back — an attrition rate of 67%. And that's not the worst. Of the 31 qualifiers in 1973, only seven were back in 1974, a 77% fatality rate.

The least number of qualifiers was 20, in 1953 and 1954.

The next race is scheduled for May 9. Registration is at 9 a.m. with races to follow at 10:30.

The dirt track, located off Route 94, ½ mile east of the Cottonwood Golf Course, was judged one of the best by a visiting official of the National Bicycle Assn., according to club spokesman Lou Szuch.

He credits R. C. Schoonover and other parents of the participants for keeping the track in top condition.

Scouts Explore Ball Club at 'Padre Post'

"In spring every young man's fancy turns to baseball."

... at least that's what the San Diego Padres and the Explorer Division of the B.S.A. must have thought when they joined forces to form the "Padre Explorer Post."

"In conjunction with the local Boy Scouts of America office, we are instituting a new Explorer Scout program (The Padre Explorer Post) to give high school aged students a chance to see first hand the workings of a professional major league baseball operation," said Padre President "Buzzie" Bavasi in making the announcement.

The Post, the first of its kind in the county, will be geared toward those who have an interest in the "front office" operations. The program will consist of twice-monthly meetings. One meeting will be devoted to such topics as ticket operations, broadcasting and public relations. The second meeting will give the members a chance to see a big league baseball game.

Mike Ryan, director of public relations for the ball club, will be Post Advisor and Andy Strasberg, of season ticket sales, will be the institutional representative. Bavasi will serve as chairman of the Post committee.

"The program will be a lot of fun," Bavasi related to the formation committee, "but please keep in mind that it will be more of a learning experience than anything else as we plan to expose members to all of the facets of operating a major league franchise."

The first meeting was held yesterday in the Sports Club at San Diego Stadium.

High School age boys and girls interested in joining should contact Bill Long of the Exploring Division, BSA at 298-2821 or Mike Ryan at the Padre Office, 283-4494.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

The MONY Tournament of Champions, kicking off at La Costa today almost never came about this year. And therein lies a tale of great greed and chicanery amid the hierarchy of golf's governors.

You see, PGA Tour commissioner Deane Beman opted for the format and seized an opportunity to pilfer the property by dumping the La Costa site and operation in favor of his season-ending creation, the New World Series of Golf.

Now, even in golf it's illegal to steal the property of another, so Beman covered his movements and motive by pointing to a poorly written, undocumented, disjointed collection of half truths, rumors and pure poppycock published in a slick slick attacking La Costa and some of its principals and claimed such comments made the 24-year-old tour stop unworthy of PGA sponsorship.

How unsporting. That's like stealing the chicken then blaming the farmer because his gate had a latch on it instead of a lock.

You have to give Beman credit. He didn't start out to steal anything small. He opted for the biggest tournament around under the top four, which are nailed down by tradition and position and are, therefore presumably, out of his reach.

Golfers, all of them, rate the MONY Tournament of Champions right up there with the Big Four. Go down the list of greats and near greats of the swinging world and ask their opinion. Until a few had something to gain by ducking the issue, they all put the MONY T of C right behind the Masters, The PGA, The U.S. Open and the British Open.

The MONY T of C is unique, of course, in that only winners of tournaments played in the preceding 12-months are eligible to tee up. It's a tourney of winners. It decides the Champion of Champions.

It was just the thing for Beman to end his "golf season" on and he thought to expand the PGA owned World Series of Golf tourney to just that format.

But wait. Two Tournament of Champions? Hardly. One of them would have to go. But which one? The imitation or the real thing? Since Beman and the Tournament Players Division of the PGA owned the imitation, the real Tournament of Champions obviously was the one to go.

But when Beman announced his pilfering ploy, he reckoned without the basic honesty of the men for whom he works. The players. The guys who make it all possible. The body politic. They revolted.

Tour golfers are basically individual business men who pursue their pot of gold and other worldly riches with talent, skill and essential honesty. It's a matter of considerable pride they even blow the whistle on themselves. "My ball moved in the deep grass," any and all would report, incurring a stroke penalty, when no one save themselves would ever know.

Some 60 such honest men told Beman what he could do with his pilfering plans and that worthy quickly backed down. The MONY T of C was placed back on the schedule. But he still stuck it to 'em. Oh, how Beman got even.

The fifth rated (by the players, as said before) tournament of the tour was stuck in behind one of the big four, the Masters, and as an added twist of disesteem, it was laid on during Easter week.

Beman has his supporters, of course. One wonders how many and for how long. Jack Nicklaus, who gained a great deal from golf and therefore owes the sport a great deal, was not one of the signers of the petition demanding the MONY Tournament of Champions be restored.

It is probably just a coincidence that Jack received great dates for HIS first tournament, the Memorial, to be played over the Memorial Day weekend. One hopes both his tournament and his conscience remain untroubled.

Nicklaus' absence from the MONY T of C is certainly understandable. A four-time winner of the event, and a collector of more than $200,000 over the years of T and C money, Jack says he needs a rest. Good resting, Jack.

And as for Beman's World Series of Golf, taking winners from just about everything in sight including the US and British Amateurs, the affront continues. The winner of the MONY Tournament of Champions, the fifth rated test of the tour, is uninvited to participate in its imitation.

Padres On First Visit To Houston, Cincinnati

The San Diego Padres will wind up their first road trip of the season in the next seven days as the club will meet the Houston Astros four times and the defending World Champion Cincinnati Reds twice.

San Diego will take on the Astros in the Astrodome on April 16 and 17 and conclude the visit with a doubleheader on Sunday, April 18.

After an off day on the 19th, the Padres will move into Cincinnati for single games on April 20-21 before returning to San Diego on April 22 to prepare for the club's second homestand of the year beginning on the 23rd.

The Padres will be looking for better results against the Astros as they split last season's series 9-9 despite the fact Houston finished in the cellar in the tough National League Western Division.

As for the Reds, the Padres played the defending World Champions pretty even a year ago. Cincinnati won the season series 11-7, but the seven wins against the Reds was second only to the Los Angeles Dodgers who beat them 10 times over the course of the season. "A good showing against Cincinnati would be a real boost for the club," said McNamara. "To play well against the defending World Champions would put the club in a great frame of mind for the next homestand when we'll be making our first appearances against the clubs from the Eastern Division."

San Diego Charger Backers will hold its Annual Meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the Sports club of the San Diego Stadium. A cocktail hour will precede the formal part of the meeting. Five members will be elected to the board of directors tonight.

A showing of the 1975 Charger Highlights film is scheduled and members of the Chargers coaching staff will be on hand to brief members on the coming year.

Members should use the Mission Village dr. entrance and enter the stadium through Gate E. Guests are welcome.

S.D. Middleweight David Love Black White-Champ of S. Africa Now Seeks Black-Black Title

David Love, San Diego's flashy middleweight boxer, may be nearing fame. Last year on August 24, he "brutally trounced" South Africa's white middleweight champion — Jan Kies.

Now he is headed back to South Africa to try his skill on the black champion. There is a champion in both races because apartheid — discrimination — is practiced forcefully there.

The proposed black victim is Elijah "Tap-Tap" Makhuthini who holds a signal victory over the legendary Emile Griffith who is a five-time world middleweight champion. Makhuthini was walloping out his win over Griffith last year about the same time Love was decking Kies five times to win a walk in Wembley Stadium at Johannesburg. Those who think Love is not a fast starter should note that he floored Kies in the first and second rounds of that fight.

S. Africa Black Champ
Makhuthini is the S. Africa middleweight champion who, following his fight with Love, will enter negotiations for a go at the current world white champion Sydney "Young Destroyer" Hoho.

Love is 26 and is a former Kearny prep star (football). He joined the ranks of professional fighters without ever having battled as an amateur. He was in a hurry. As a young man in a hurry, he worked his way up to a bout with California middleweight George Cooper for his 24th professional fight. On November 13, 1973, he fought Cooper and lost — but he gave a good account of himself. He was given a return match with Cooper on April 12, 1975. He lost again.

Love was a favorite at Mickey Davies' Coliseum in San Diego, but when Davies elected to drop boxing matches there in the later part of 1975, local fighters fell on hard times. It was Los Angeles or elsewhere. Love and the others fought only spasmodically.

Under the tutelage of Angelo Dundee, Love attracted attention overseas. He traveled to Torino, Italy, to fight Bruno Arcari, European middleweight champ on December 12, 1975. Arcari won in a close decision — but what a record he brought into the ring against Love. Of 67 lifetime fights, Arcari won all but two; the last 55 in a row, all 55 were at home!

Love had been warned that the only way an opponent can get the nod in Arcari's hometown is to know him out — a thing none of his opponents had ever accomplished.

Love will leave for Johannesburg on May 24 for his meeting with Makhuthini, carrying the blessing of Dundee.

A personal concern is about his soon-to-be youngster who is expected to be delivered of his wife Margaret about May 15. But if the youngster is to get here before its father leaves for overseas, it will have to show at least one characteristic of pop's. He's got to get here in a hurry!

'Coup' in Politics

Al Couppee, noted sportscaster, sportswriter and former football star, is in politics up to his sweatshirt.

He is the Republican candidate for State Assembly in the 78th District. His opponent is L. Kapiloff.

His supporters have opened a headquarters for Coup at 3199 Sports Arena Blvd. in San Diego.

Couppee may be reached at headquarters telephone 223-2454.

New Owner for S.D. Breakers

Michael R. Krupp, a financial consultant in the merger-and-acquisition industry, has become the new owner of San Diego Breakers' Volleyball franchise, it was announced this week.

Krupp was presented by Breakers General Manager Alex Groza at the Sportscasters/Sportswriters meeting at Palais 500 Tuesday.

Krupp, only 29, said he is presently sole owner but will acquire some associates in the near future. "It was a good investment," he noted citing the advantages volleyball has over football, hockey and basketball franchises.

"I went to some pro volleyball games as a fan last season . . . and here I am, an owner."

He bought the franchise from Berry Gody, president of Motown Record Corp. for an undisclosed sum.

With the new owner, Krupp, and new general manager, Groza, is a new public relations director, Ans Dilley. Krupp and his family live in La Jolla.

$60,000 Awaits Winners of La Costa Mixed Net Tourney

Eight women professionals, including Billie Jean King and Martina Navratilova, will team with senior men pros in the $60,000 La Costa Mixed Doubles Classic May 8-9, sponsored by Clair and Vitalis.

All quarter and semi-final matches will be played on Saturday's opening day with the finals scheduled for Sunday, according to Don Hamilton, tourney director.

All matches will be played at the La Costa Racquet Club in Carlsbad.

The world's leading senior men players will join the women for the popular mixed doubles competition.

Hamilton said that Roy Emerson, a 1971 Wimbledon men's doubles winner, and Lew Hoad, back-to-back singles winner at Wimbledon in 1956-57, head the impressive list of seniors.

Tony Trabert, Too
Davis Cup captain Tony Trabert, 1953 and 1955 national singles winner; Victor Seixas, who won at Forest Hills in 1954; and Frank Sedgman, who dominated the men players in the early 1950's, all will be participating in the event as will Pancho Segura and Torben Ulrich.

"Most amateur players now are involved in mixed doubles more than singles or even a straight doubles and the popularity of mixed doubles is obvious at any club in San Diego County," Hamilton said. "That is why this tournament has a special appeal to just about every person who swings a tennis racket, and for even those who don't."

King, who now limits her tournament action to doubles (she still plays singles for the New York Sets of World Team Tennis) teamed with Trabert to win last year's event.

She won the mixed doubles title at Wimbledon four times, her last victory in 1974. She has taken the doubles championship six times. On five occasions she was paired with Rosie Casals and once with Betty Stove.

Navratilova
Navratilova is the vocal, superb, 20-year-old who likes ice cream, mink coats and flashy automobiles with a teenager's enthusiasm. Second only to Chris Evert in tournament earnings for women, Navratilova won 80 per cent of all her competitive matches last year and delighted audiences with her good humor at the same time.

The winning team at the La Costa event will divide $24,000. Second place is worth $12,000 and the third and fourth place teams earn $6,000 each. All players are guaranteed $2,000.

Saturday's schedule on May 8 of six matches will begin at 9 o'clock. Semi-finals at 2 p.m.

Every player entered in the tournament will play Saturday. Tickets are good for all day.

Sunday's finals will begin at 11 a.m. CBS will televise this event.

Tickets priced at $6 and $9 are now on sale at La Costa for both tournament days.

Mail orders will be filled promptly: Write La Costa Mixed Doubles, Costa Del Mar road, Carlsbad 92008.

Summer Camp at Y to Have More Variety

"We are planning better and more varied programs," said Ralph Fish, program director at the Davis Family YMCA in La Mesa, about the upcoming summer camp. Camp starts June 28 at the local Y.

Y-Day camp for the first-time camper (ages 6 to 11) will include five periods of camp with room for 80 children each period.

For the more adventure-some, there are Y resident camps, one near Julian and the other in Imperial Beach. There will be nine one-week periods at each camp.

For teenagers there is backpacking in the High Sierra and a two-week trip to the national parks of the West in Utah, Colorado and Arizona.

The Y is signing up campers and answering questions at 464-1323.

Friars Trade Amritraj Brothers For Ross Case and Ann H. Jones

The San Diego Friars acquired Ross Case and Ann Haydon Jones from the Los Angeles Strings in a trade for Vijay Amritraj.

Also included in the four-player trade was Ashok Amritraj, a brother of Vijay who recently had signed with San Diego.

"The addition of Ross Case and Ann Haydon Jones along with Rod Laver and Terry Holladay gives the Friars excellent competitive balance for the 1976 World Team Tennis schedule," said Allan Kingston, San Diego president.

Laver, an all-time great, is 37 while Case, who, earned $104,900 in tournament purses during 1975, is only 24. Ms. Jones, during her career the winner of four major singles titles including Wimbledon in 1969, is 38 and Holladay, the La Jolla resident who this winter moved into the top ten in women's competition, is 20.

Friars Potential Grows

"Laver with Case and Jones with Holladay give the Friars the potential not only to win consistently this season but also to develop the foundation for a winning future," Kingston said.

Case, 5-8 and 150, plays right-handed (supporting the southpaw Laver) and is rated one of the world's strongest doubles players. He teamed with Geoff Masters to win the Australian doubles in 1972 and took the Monterey tournament earlier this year.

In WTT play with Los Angeles last year, he won 26 of 45 doubles matches and six of seven mixed doubles.

But he's also a formidable singles player, reaching the Wimbledon quarter-finals in 1971 and winning San Francisco in 1974, defeating Roy Emerson, Dick Stockton and Arthur Ashe. Currently he ranks 24 on the competitive rating. Case played Davis Cup for his native Australia in 1971 and 1972.

Jones played World Team Tennis for Minnesota in 1974 and for Cleveland in 1975 before being acquired by L.A. A native of Great Britain, she is regarded as one of the all-time masters of women's tennis having reached the semi-finals at Wimbledon seven out of 10 times, not including her championship win over Billie Jean King.

Won In France and Italy

In addition to Wimbledon, her other major singles victories were the French in 1961 and 1966 and the Italian in 1966. Twice she was runner-up at Forest Hills in the U. S. Open.

During a five-year period, 1969-74, her competitive record rates sixth among all women players.

Jones played on the English Wightman Cup team 15 times, teamed with Fred Stolle to win the Wimbledon mixed doubles in 1969 and with Francoise Durr captured the French women's doubles in both 1968 and 1969.

The Friars begin their season May 4 in the Sports Arena against the World Champion Pittsburgh Triangles — whose team includes Evonne Goolagong, Mark Cox and Vitas Gerulaitis.

Track Admission Cut; Purse Money Increased

GARDENA — Top-ranked professionals returning from the Dallas American Motorcycle Assn. national championship event are expected to strengthen the half-mile program which opens the major part of the Ascot weekend schedule Friday night.

Rick Hocking, Dave Aldana, Eddie Wirth and Terry Dorsch are among those who are returning.

C.R.A. cars resume their regular card Saturday night with a new $2,750 purse to shoot at. Although J. C. Agajanian has reduced the general admission ticket from $3.90 to $3.50 for sprint cars, he decided to add another $250 to the purse to heighten the competition in an already-expanding program.

The appearance of more new racers and the increased number of younger drivers in the sprint field has encouraged Agajanian.

The Ascot weekend:
Thur. — AMA short track motorcycles & novice qualifying, 7 p.m.

Fri. — AMA half-mile motorcycles (professional), 8 p.m.

Sat. — CRA Sprint Cars, 8 p.m.

Sun. — Figure 8 stock cars, 7 p.m.

McIntyre Cops Initial Lead In Cajon Speedway Opener

Pat McIntyre, of Spring Valley, loaded in 240 points by winning the main event Saturday night at Cajon Speedway opening production.

John Dineen of El Cajon was second with Lanny Pemberton, of Lemon Grove taking third place.

Super stock car crews will be working extra hours to develop proper engine and suspension combinations for the season's second race program at Cajon Speedway Saturday night at 8.

Time trials for some 60 cars will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the four-car, four-lap trophy dash gets under way at 8 p.m. Headline attraction will be a 40-lap main event with the 20 fastest qualifiers.

So far, Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley has the jump on the others. Not by much, because there are more close challengers this year.

Wide On Corners

Last week's runner-up John Dineen of El Cajon, is confident his Mach 1 with a 429-cubic inch Ford engine can do the job in the straightaways but he has work on the suspension to keep the car from going too wide in the corners.

Joan Sanchez, Holly Stahl and Debbie Swiman will be battling for the crown.

Race programs consist of four 8-lap heats, a consi, 20-lap semi main and 40-lap main plus a 4-lap trophy dash. Exceptions will be on May 29-July 3-Sept. 4 and Oct. 2 when the cars will run in 76 lappers.

Champs In Olympic Time Trials In SF

SAN FRANCISCO — Three 1976 U.S. and Canadian National Champions who are scheduled for this year's Olympic Time-Trials will run in Paul Masson Winery's Fourth Annual Champagne Marathon, to be held in Saratoga, California (60 miles south of San Francisco), Saturday.

1976 National Master's Champion Ray Menzie, 41, of San Francisco will be participating as the fastest runner in the U.S. over 40 years of age. Menzie ran a 2:33 in last year's Boston Marathon.

Brian Maxwell, the 1976 Canadian National Champion from Toronto, will also run. He is currently the Track Coach at U.C. Berkeley.

Charles Snead, the 1976 National Champion of the 50 Kilometer who set an American record of 2:50:45 earlier this year also plans to run. Hailing from Humboldt County, he is a three-time National 15-Kilometer as well as a two-time NCAA 6-Mile Champion.

Telly's Pop, Derby Hero In Hollypark Matchup

California Derby winner Telly's Pop and Santa Anita Derby hero An Act, each with one victory at the expense of the other, will settle their score once and for all when Hollywood Park stages the $200,000 added Hollywood Derby Saturday at the Inglewood track.

The Hollywood Derby, 1/8 mile on the main track, is the third and richest jewel of the new California Golden Triple series for West Coast three-year-olds. The race also serves as the final springboard to the classic Kentucky Derby, scheduled two weeks later at Churchill Downs.

Owned by movie producer Howard W. Koch and television's "Kojak", Telly Savalas, Telly's Pop won such races as the Del Mar Futurity, Norfolk Stakes and California Juvenile Stakes last year, to be ranked second only to Honest Pleasure among the nation's top two-year-olds. This spring Telly's Pop easily defeated favored An Act in the $150,000 California Derby at Golden Gate Fields, but inexplicably wound up fifth in the $157,700 Santa Anita Derby as the 7-5 favorite.

Classically-bred An Act, who cost his syndicate owners $100,000 at auction last year, captured his first three lifetime outings at Santa Anita this winter, before failing to fire in the Cal Derby.

Lobbyists Defeat No-Fault Says Lionel Van Deerlin

San Diego Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin called it "a sad day for the American motorist" when the Senate recently sidetracked legislation to set up a national no-fault automobile insurance system.

He told the House of Representatives, "In turning back on no-fault, the Senate has made certain that trial lawyers will continue to skim nearly $2 billion a year from awards that could and should be going to accident victims."

Van Deerlin is author of a companion House no-fault bill which has advanced out of the consumer protection and finance subcommittee, which he chairs.

The Senate voted, 49-45, to send the no-fault bill back to committee — almost tantamount to killing the proposal. Two years ago similar legislation was approved by the Senate, 53 to 42.

No-fault systems are in effect in several states but not California. Under the no-fault concept, persons hurt in auto accidents are normally compensated by their own insurance companies, regardless of who was to blame for the accident. In this manner, much costly accident litigation is eliminated.

Blames Lobby

Van Deerlin said a "major, new, well-financed" lawyers' lobby was responsible for getting enough senators to switch from support of no-fault to stop the bill. He said most of the switches were "so-called Republican moderates" but acknowledged that 20 Democrats also voted against the bill.

The anti-no-fault lobby had a $400,000 war chest, according to consumer organizations. Van Deerlin said the organization most active in the fight against no-fault were the American Bar Association and the Trial Lawyers Association.

He said the Senate turnaround lessens chances of favorable action by the House on the bill.

Burgener to M.C. Bollman Dinner

Mike Bollman's Assembly Campaign Committee will hold a campaign kickoff fund raising dinner on Tuesday, April 20, at the Navajo Country Club's Culpepper Restaurant, 7380 Golfers pl., San Diego, with hosted cocktails at 6:30 p.m. and a buffet dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Congressman Clair W. Burgener will serve as Master of Ceremonies of the fun-fund raiser which will feature music, dancing and no political speeches.

The cost is $50 a person and interested persons may contact the Bollman Campaign Headquarters at 582-8825 for reservations.

Thirsty Burglar Here

Four quarts of liquor and a "Vietnam" 5-shot revolver was the loot taken from the home of Frank Henry Madersiak on March 30, he told sheriff's deputies.

Madersiak, who lives at 8879 Lance dr., Spring Valley, reported that the thief entered a rear door while he was away.

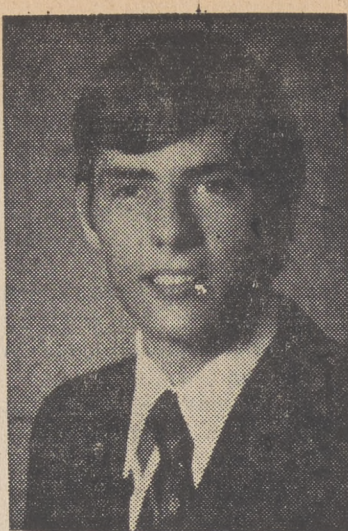

The gun was not in operating condition but the combined liquor and gun loss amounted to $115, he said.

'No on 15' Opens San Diego Office

"NO on 15 Committee — San Diegans Against the Nuclear Shutdown" — has opened its new headquarters at 2727 Camino del Rio South.

The committee is headed by leading representatives of business, labor, industry, retired service, community organizations and education. Prior to the numbering of Proposition 15 for the June 8 ballot, the committee was known as "San Diego Citizens for Jobs and Energy."

"NO on 15" is part of a statewide organization actively opposing the Nuclear Power Plants Initiative on the grounds that its passage would bring about the nation's first nuclear shutdown. Such a shutdown could have severe economic consequences at a time when the U. S. is faced with dwindling natural resources and needs alternative means of power generation, according to R. R. Richardson, one of the 10 chairmen on the San Diego committee and secretary-treasurer of the San Diego County Labor Council, AFL-CIO.

The new NO office will be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Mondays through Fridays, and will coordinate all speaking engagements against the nuclear shutdown. Those wishing to volunteer services to defeat Prop. 15 may visit the office in person or call for further information.

New Phone Service to Help Frequent Coastal Callers

A local telephone company official said this week that the utility will offer a new service by early next year that could lead to lower phone bills for Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residence customers who call La Jolla, Pacific Beach and Coronado frequently.

It's known as Optional Calling Measured Service (OCMS), which will allow Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residence subscribers to call communities in the La Jolla, Coronado and Pacific Beach Exchanges for separate basic monthly surcharges.

At present, calls from Lemon Grove and Spring Valley to the above-mentioned exchanges carry long distance charges ranging from a high of 17 cents for the first minute and 10 cents for each additional minute to a low of 11 cents for the first minute and 7 cents for each additional minute.

Helen Speratos, Pacific Telephone's local manager, estimates that 52,000 residence customers in the La Mesa exchange, which includes Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, will be eligible for the new service. Business customers will not be affected by the OCMS offering, she added.

BBB Ad Review Department Busy; Claims Progress in Local Advertising

The Advertising Review Department of San Diego's Better Business Bureau claims a marked improvement in local advertising since it was reorganized and expanded fifteen months ago. The bolstered department resulted from the local bureau's decision to establish advertising review as its number one priority.

Advertising guarantees, comparative list prices and under-selling claims were three major areas of investigation for the Ad Review Department.

Most industries were involved in some degree in the probe of guarantees, a BBB newsletter reports, but the greatest number of questionable or incomplete guarantee claims were found in the construction, home improvement and maintenance fields.

'Unconversant'

Most of the advertisements that appeared to be in violation of Federal Trade Commission rules and the BBB Code of Advertising were "found to be unconversant with the requirements for the advertising of guarantees."

In nearly every case, copy was amended to comply with the rules, the newsletter said.

A number of "list" or "manufacturer's list" prices mentioned in ads have neither been changed nor substantiated, the Bureau reports. A list price may be compared to the advertised price to the extent that it is the actual selling price by representative retailers in the market area, according to BBB Advertising Code.

Among underselling claims challenged by the BBB is one that claims to "beat any advertised price in USA, Canada or Mexico." Another offers to refund the difference between the price paid for an item and any lower price found elsewhere up to 30 days after purchase.

Merchant's guarantees that they will not be undersold are unsubstantiated, according to the Bureau, because "the rapidity with which prices fluctuate and the difficulty of determining prices of all sellers at all times precludes an absolute knowledge of the truth of such claims."

The BBB insists that only a very few advertisers are failing to substantiate or change advertisements questioned by the BBB.

Sheriff's Insp. Q. D. Cash Retires

Inspector Quentin D. Cash, a 27-year veteran of the Sheriff's department and former officer in charge of the east county area including Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, has retired.

countywide policy. He served in the area during 1968-1970 period.

He joined the Sheriff's Department in 1949 after being discharged from the Navy. He moved through the ranks to become a captain — a rank he held while serving in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area. He was promoted to inspector in 1972 and moved to San Diego headquarters as head of the patrol bureau.

In 1969 Cash took a detachment of deputies to Palm Springs to disperse 1,000-3,000 hippies and rioters who had virtually taken over that city.

In 1970 he headed up the sheriff's operation during President Nixon's visit to San Diego.

In 1971 he was graduated from the FBI National Academy which was then at Washington.

In 1972 he became the first commander of the Sheriff's Court Services Bureau with 111 sworn personnel performing duties in civil process, court bailiff and prisoner transportation.

His retirement became effective on April 1.

Proper Authorities

It is understandable that a person's first and most compelling desire when he has been cheated is to get his money back. But to punish a crook monetarily is not enough. It is to everyone's benefit to see that deception-peddlers are put out of business. And the best way to accomplish that is to report cases to the appropriate authorities when they occur.

Following are some general areas in which fraudulent practices can occur, with the names and addresses of the nearest office to which they should be reported:

● For short weight or deceptive packaging — Bureau of Weights and Measures, Room A-145, 1220 N St., Sacramento 95814, or Supervising Quality Control Inspector, Bureau of Weights and Measures, Room 804, 1111 Jackson St., Oakland 94607.

● For misbranded or contaminated foods, drugs or cosmetics — California Bureau of Foods and Drug Inspections, 1625 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley 94709.

● For cases involving TV, radio or stereo repairs — Bureau of Electronic Repair Dealer Registration, 1021 O St., Sacramento 95814.

● For home improvement troubles, the Contractors State License Board at Room 7117, 107 S. Broadway, Los Angeles 90012.

● For problems involving insurance, contact the California Department of Insurance Commissioner at State Office Building, Room 5054, 1350 Front St., San Diego 92101.

The service would include a monthly two-hour daytime (8 a.m.-3 p.m.) calling allowance to either Coronado, Pacific Beach or La Jolla. If the customer exceeded the two-hour allowance, he would be billed three cents for each additional minute over the allowance.

However, calls made between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m. would not be charged against the allowance. The surcharge would be $2.75.

Speratos said residence customers in the La Jolla, Pacific Beach and Coronado exchange would obtain OCMS to Lemon Grove and Spring Valley at the same rates.

Because most of the exchanges involved serve more than one community, she advised persons interested in obtaining the new service to contact their local telephone office for details.

BoR Says Home Prices

'Flattening' in Area

March statistics from the San Diego Board of Realtors Multiple Listing Service show that the average sale price of resale single-family homes and condominiums was $42,217. This figure is down from both the February average of $42,745 and the January average of $43,923.

According to the Board, average prices this year will not get as low as they were last year, although figures indicate a flattening-out of prices. The Board expects this to continue until summer, the normal peak period of home buying and selling.

Cozens, Ass't CAO Quits County Post

Robert C. Cozens, Assistant Chief Administrative Officer-Fiscal and Justice Agency of San Diego County, has announced his resignation effective July 20.

Cozens, 57, was named, in July 1975, to head the F&J Agency under a provisional appointment by the County's Chief Administrative Officer David K. Speer and confirmed by the Board of Supervisors. The appointment was made following the consolidation of the Fiscal and the L&J agencies. He replaced Robert (Bud) James who retired after 41 years of County service.

"I plan to devote the balance of my career to private business which will allow me to spend more time with my family," Cozens said. "I am now considering various business opportunities."

Agency Departments
Departments under the Fiscal and Justice Agency which are headed by elected officials include the assessor, county clerk, district attorney Justice Courts, Superior Court, recorder, sheriff, tax collector and treasurer. Departments headed by appointed officials include coroner, marshal, public administrator, purchasing, and revenue and recovery.

Speer said, "Cozens' departure will be a disappointment to those who really know what his public contributions have been. His unique experience and rare integrity have meant much to those who have been privileged to enjoy his presence."

Previous to joining San Diego County, Cozens was director of the California State Department of Motor Vehicles. Prior to that, he initially had been elected to the Board of Supervisors from the Fifth District in 1960 to fill an unexpired term, and was subsequently re-elected in 1962 and 1966.

Refund to Appear On Some Gas Bills

The San Diego Gas & Electric Company has announced that it will refund about $325,000 collected from customers for natural gas exploration in Alaska.

The refunds stem from the termination of a contract between SDGE's gas supplier, Southern California Gas Co. and Atlantic Richfield. The PUC recent granted the utility the right to refund the money collected.

The refund will go to customers who used more than 75 terms of gas a month between December 7 and January 12, since they were the only ones to which the increase applied. It will appear as a credit on the bill of each eligible customer.

'Family Trust' Tax Dodges Illegal, IRS Chief Says

The Internal Revenue Service has issued a warning to taxpayers against falling prey to a family estate trust tax avoidance scheme being promoted as a "loophole" in the tax law.

According to William H. Connett, IRS District Director for Southern California, the family estate trust scheme usually involves the creation of one or more private trusts. The creator then turns over to the trust or foundation all of his or her property including a lifetime contract for personal services and becomes its director or trustee.

Connett said property may be a home or income producing securities, while services are often the trust creator's regular employment with the paychecks being made out to the trust instead of the trustee. Often the creator will manage the trust for a manager's fee and report it on his or her

Coast Guard Reserve Enlisting Students

The U. S. Coast Guard Reserve has a new program for high school students, especially juniors, which allows them to enlist now, serve during the summer, and return home in time to start school in the fall.

At the end of the school year, the student would report to the Coast Guard Recruit Training Center in Alameda for ten weeks of initial training during which the student would be paid.

Once the school year commences, the student would attend a local Coast Guard Reserve meeting, one weekend a month, again with pay and opportunities for promotion. Upon graduation, the student would be sent to one of the many available vocational schools, or to any of the Coast Guard's ships or land based stations for on-the-job training.

Openings are available for both men and women, 17 years of age or older, who pass written and physical examinations, and meet the Coast Guard's enlistment standards.

Applicants should apply for this summer's program before the close of the school year by contacting the nearest U. S. Coast Guard Recruiting Office.

Monte Vista Boosters Debt Brought Down to $21,000

By John Kowalczyk

The Monte Vista Booster Club has shown they can do it.

The club, dedicated to providing money, materials and labor to the needs of Spring Valley's Monte Vista High School, is planning its annual dinner-dance, at which members and friends will celebrate the fact that they are only $20,000 away from completing a mammoth three-phase project for their school's stadium complex.

The Booster Club boasts more than $400,000 in improvements and financial assistance in almost a dozen years.

The club opened just prior to 1965, according to Mary Lindley, an active member whose husband George is a past president of the group. The Lindleys, like several of the club members, are active participants in spite of the fact that they have no children attending the school at present.

Three Phases

The school opened just a year or two before the club was founded, she said. The stadium complex project was drafted in 1965 and was geared for three phases — bleachers, facilities and swimming pool.

Donated labor, equipment and funds for phase one totaled $97,000. That encompassed a 4,000-seat capacity concrete bleacher area and an outdoor assembly area. It replaced the more flimsy wooden bleacher seating provided by the school district.

The boosters get the proceeds from the concessions. They split the profits with visitors using the field, such as Pop Warner football teams or Valhalla High.

Stadium facilities were the second phase. The boosters have furnished $104,000 in labor, materials and money for overhead lighting for the football field, additional fencing, rest rooms and concession stands.

Before the boosters went to work on the project, the athletic field had portable restrooms, and no lighting, and snacks were dispensed from the back of a truck.

Today's stand has freezers, refrigerators, a hot dog cooker, bun warmer, coffee maker, popcorn machine and crushed ice maker, not to mention a newly installed linoleum floor.

All of these furnishings are paid for, but the boosters aren't through with this phase. Mrs. Lindley said the club wants to provide rest rooms and a permanent concession stand on the visitors side of the field.

$160,000 Pool

The most costly phase of the booster club's program was Monte Vista's swimming pool, which ran up a bill of $160,000.

Of that amount, club members take pride in noting that they owe only $21,000. The pool complex they provided included the 25-meter-by-25-ft. pool, and maintenance, storage and office building space. Grossmont Union High School District pitched in and built a shower and dressing room facility to provide pool access to community swimmers.

Lindley said a strong incentive for building the pool was Hansen's Pond, which she described as "a place where children went to drown." An average of three or four children drowned in the pond every summer, she said.

The pool was dedicated in January, 1974.

Two large boosts in the cost of building it were $50,000 from County government and $25,000 from Grossmont School District. The rest came from private donations and fund-raising efforts.

Dinner-Dance

One mainstay in the fund-raising drive has been the annual dinner-dance. It is held in the Drew Ford Rotunda this year in La Mesa on May 1. Price is being held down to the customary $15 a couple. Advance tickets are available by calling either Mrs. Barney Lanz, 460-3913, or the Monte Vista office, 465-1300.

Prop. 5 Seen as 'Economic Suicide'

Dr. Stanford S. Penner, director of the Energy Center at U.C. San Diego, has come out against the nuclear shutdown initiative (Prop. 15), because its passage "may well be a compact to economic suicide" for the American people.

Penner, who is also professor of engineering physics at UCSD, said in a four-page statement that the only groups standing to profit from the passage of Prop 15 on June 8 are the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and the major oil companies: their prices, sales and profits will escalate.

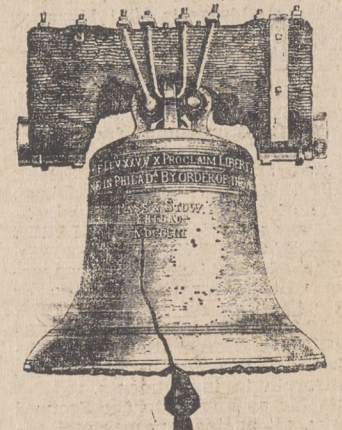

"When this technical initiative is examined in the context of its proper socio-political frame, its passage must be viewed as inimical to the interests of the people of California and the United States," said Penner, who is coauthor of two major energy texts and is in final stages of readying a third for publication.

He said OPEC oil profits during 1975 were sufficient to acquire the Bank of America in 10 days, the Exxon Corp. in 79 days or all the companies listed on the world's major stock exchanges in 15 years. Without nuclear power, our dependence on foreign oil will grow even more rapidly.

Front Tires Taken

When Joyce Evelyn Casebier awoke to go to work one morning last week, she thought she'd be on time.

That was before she found that someone had removed the two front tires from her car which was parked in front of her home at 3430 Calavo in Spring Valley March 28. She said it would cost $80 to replace them.
